Having been appointed sole sense for the sale of the above popular work for this city, we offer it at publisher's prices. It is a fine volume of 640 pages, filled with interesting matter and sketches of the distinguished men with whom the author was associated in the Senate of the United States; with Riccitle portraitures of eminent Divines, including George G. Cookman, John P. Durbin, Heury Ward Beecher, James Floy, Charles Wadsworth, and others. The book is rife with Western life. Complete in I vol. Price $2. Discount to the trade.

WILEY & HALSTED, No. 351 Breadway, N. Y.

"Becks of this class are eminently valuable in a historical point of view. They are the observations of a cotemporary, the notes of an intelligent, active man in life, which are infinitely more important than all the reasonings, collections and deductions of the profession all historias. The volume is readable, abounding in anecdete and personal reminiscences of Coura, Judges, Jurots, Civilians, and artiste of all kinds. The author has sound sense and good judgment, with a skillful pen."

THE PAPER FOR YOUR FAMILY. THE PAPER FOR YOUR FAMILY.

"Everything thought of or unthought of in literary circles appears weekly in the columns of Morris & Willis's Home Journal—spicy correspondence, sparkling stories, dainty and memorable morresure—together with a universal chronicle of facts, fancies, fashios, news, noveities. These are interspersed with running accounts of the progress and improvements of the ago. Where else can such an attractive melange be found?"

By unceasing vigilance and industry, and by skill acquired in long and successful practice, we hope still to keep the HOME JOURNAL undisputed as the best family newspaper in the world.

XXXIVb Congress—1769 to 1857. I vol. imp. 2vs., 1,142 pp. Price only $6.

"It is a work of much value and well executed. The heads under which the different Acts of Congress are arranged, are well chosen and appropriate; and what is still more important, the Index, so far as I have been able to examine it, is complete. The book has evidently been prepared with much care and judgment, and will, I doubt not, be very acceptable to the public." From the Hon. James M. Wayne. Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

"I have purposely postponed my acknowledgment to you for Mr. Brightly's Aralytical Digest of the Laws of the United States. to enable me to test the fidelity of its execution and its unsfoliness. Mr. Brightly has succeeded in bringing the Laws of the United States into a single volume, so that we may see not only what the legislation of Congress has been, but what it is; with such marginal references to the statutes at large that the test of his Digest may either be verified or disproved. If any instance of the latter case he done. I have used the Digest constantly at the term of the Supreme Court. It has saved me much labor and trouble. As a whole it has been well done by Mr. Brightly and it deserves the special patronage of lawyers and magistrates, and of all persons engaged in public life, as well as those who have no professional business, who are, nevertheless, under some obligations to have by them at all times the readiest means of learning what has been the legislation of the Congress of the United States. I am sure I shall always use Mr. Brightly's Digest officially and in my study."
